PRINCIPAL NEWS

Dear Parents,

During Term Three our senior students ran our Peer Support Program on Optimism. They facilitated mixed age groups across the school to help teach the program and they did a fabulous job. Why do we run this program at St John's?

One of our School Improvement Goals is to help our children improve their resilience and wellbeing. The Peer Support Program on Optimism sends important messages about positive self-talk; it encourages making positive choices; it teaches the importance of displaying gratitude and it spends time on having children identify and build on their many strengths. Our school is a supporter of parent engagement and has provided many opportunities for this to occur during 2018. One of the best ways parents can be engaged is to support the learning agenda of our school.

The link below will take you to some material for adults on ways to build a sense of optimism in children and it expands on 10 essential optimistic skills to teach your kids so that they can achieve in life. The materials have been developed by the well-respected Australian parent educator – Michael Grose. You may find this a helpful read during the school holidays:

Next Tuesday is the Feast Day of St Francis of Assisi. St Francis' "peace prayer" is a familiar one: 'Lord, make me an instrument of your peace...' I'm sure many of you know the prayer from hearing it "sung" as a hymn. The words are extremely powerful and would have earned Francis a place at the top of the Peer Support Group on Optimism. The entire prayer is about turning negative things around and seeing how we can help others, rather than thinking of ourselves.

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
Amen.

This is the final newsletter for Term 3. School will return for Term 4, Tuesday October 16th.

I take this opportunity to thank all members of our community for their contribution to our school during Term Three. I trust that the October holidays provide opportunity for families to enjoy special times together.

Sincerely,

Mark Bateman - Principal

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to all of our students who have received their first communion over the last three weekends. It is a very exciting time as you become so close to Jesus. Fr Francis had three powerful messages to help us remember to stay close to Jesus through our lives – feed me, Jesus - stay with me, Jesus - love me, Jesus. The children all received cards from Year 5 today.

SOCIAL JUSTICE SUNDAY

The last Sunday of September is known as Social Justice Sunday. Each year, the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference issue a major statement on a social justice issue that impacts us here in Australia.

This year the statement is entitled A Place to Call Home and covers the growing issues of not only homelessness but also access to secure housing for a continually growing percentage of our population. Even those of us with a roof over our heads are spending an ever larger proportion of our income on keeping it there.

Click here to access a copy of the Statement.

Our fantastic fete committee have been so busy behind the scenes getting ready for our fete next term.

How can you help? There are lots of ways...

Raffle tickets will be sent home at the end of this week. Each family will have a book of ten tickets to sell. Tickets cost $5 each or 3 for $10. The ticket stubs and money will need to be returned to school at the beginning of next term, and feel free to then ask for another book of ten to sell! We have some great prizes including a holiday to Hamilton Island, an Xbox One, an Android tablet, and more!

Do you have a friend who runs a market stall? We still have a few spaces left... Ask around and let us know! The stalls are (3mx3m) for only $100 plus GST. BYO table and marquee. Please email our Fete committee on sjan@dbb.catholic.edu.au

We still need people to help with face painting. Do you have a hidden talent? Could your teenage sons or daughters help us out? Each person only needs to volunteer for an hour.

We are still in need of more volunteers across all areas over the day – please see P&F Gazette below for link to "Sign Up" and add your name to an event (jobs have been allocated to different grades to look after).

Our Fete is a school community event and if everyone helps a little bit, everyone also has lots of time to enjoy all we will have on offer on the day!

Stay up to date with what's going on in our lead up to the big day by checking out our Fete web page - <https://www.sjandbb.catholic.edu.au/our-school/st-johns-fete/> - a big shout out and thank you to all of our wonderful sponsors and raffle donors – we can't do it without you!

For just $20 you can enjoy a full day of fun rides such as:

Safari Experience, Knights Jumping Castle, Tea Cups, Windjammer, Adrenaline Rush 2 & Cars Challenge

Follow the link to pre-purchase ride tickets:

VISIT TO CAMBODIA

During the upcoming holidays, I will be heading over to Cambodia to work in an orphanage about an hour north of Phnom Penh.

I am going with a teacher friend, Kirsty Thorpe, who has been working with the children in this particular village for the past few years. Another teacher from Kirsty's school will also be coming along. We will be working with the children each day as a type of 'vacation care' – playing games, getting involved in some arts and crafts, as well as some teaching. The children in the home range from 2 to 18; some of the kids have grown up in the home and graduated high school and are now beginning university – which is just amazing. We will also spend some time helping to 'teach the teachers' there, particularly with English skills.

With all of the great fundraising that has already happened at St John's this year, and with our upcoming fete, I really don't want to ask our families to contribute anything. However, if you are interested, there are a couple of ways you can get involved.

Option 1 – On Facebook there is a charity called 'Free to Shine' which supports Cambodian girls to stay in school (and also protects them from being child brides!!!) – you can find it and donate.

Option 2 – On Facebook Kirsty has created a page called 'Gifts for Change (Gifts4Change)'. On this page she promotes things she has brought back from Cambodia and sells, with the money going back into the community. She also 'sells' packages of things like clothes, etc that you can 'buy' and these go to the kids in the orphanage and local community.

I plan on taking lots of photos while I'm there and will share these (and stories of my adventures!) with the kids next term.

Ms Ingram

Thank you to the parents who have already completed the 'Tell them from me' survey. It will be open until tomorrow morning and we encourage all of our parent community to get involved. The survey only takes about 20min to complete and we would appreciate your feedback. Please go to:

<https://www.tellthemfromme.com/survey/splash/sjan>.

GALA DAY

Congratulations to all year 3 and 4 students who represented our school at the gala day on Tuesday. Our students were polite, showed great sportsmanship, and were respectful to the players and the referees. Our teams won some and lost some matches. Throughout all the games played in both cricket and eagle tag, our students remained fair, cheerful and ambitious. It was a very proud teacher moment for us all. Thank you stage 2! Miss Blake

Here are some images from Tuesday, more are in the 'News' section on our website and on Facebook.

Unfortunately, yesterday's rain washed out the fields for the Year 5 and 6 Gala Day today ☹ but the wonderful Mrs Fountain organised our own mini Gala Day.

ST JOHN'S MUSIC ENSEMBLE

A little bit of rain wasn't going to stop our musicians from performing! The St John's Music Ensemble have been busy practicing and rehearsing on Wednesday mornings all term, and gave a rousing performance of 3 songs; "Believer" by Imagine Dragons, "Minor Swing" (a jazzy number) and "Sunshine of Your Love" by Cream.

Well done kids! And thank you to Ben from Evergreen Music, Harry (the add-on guitarists from St Augustine's), Mr Frazer and all of the mums, dads and grandparents who get the kids to school for those early Wednesday morning starts!

Check out the video of the performance in the 'News' section of our website and on Facebook.

Our St John's Music Ensemble will be performing at our fete too – can't wait!

To Parents and Caregivers in the Diocese of Broken Bay

Friday 14 September 2018
Feast of the Exaltation of the Cross

Dear friends,

It is my great privilege to share news about the implementation of our new Diocesan Office for Safeguarding.

In 2017 Bishop Peter commissioned a Review of Safeguarding across the Catholic Diocese of Broken Bay by Mr Kelvin Simon, formally a Senior Investigation Officer for the NSW Ombudsman. The Simon Report furnished Bishop Peter with 20 Recommendations – all of which he accepted and sought to implement in a way that the Diocese could incorporate.

On 29 June Bishop Peter provided his formal promulgation of a new Diocesan Office for Safeguarding. In the period since Bishop Peter's departure from us, we have faithfully implemented his directions, and I share with this letter, the Charter for the new Diocesan Office that details its structure and organization. Bishop Peter's commitment to Safeguarding will be one of his enduring legacies to our Diocese.

It is with pleasure that I announce the appointment of the Director for the Diocesan Office for Safeguarding, Mrs Jodie Crisafulli, and two of three Managers for Safeguarding - each with responsibility for Safeguarding in the different sectors of our Diocesan life: Ms Tamara Hughes, Manager for Safeguarding (CSO), and Ms Melinda Rixon, Manager for Safeguarding (CatholicCare). We look forward to the appointment of a new Manager for Safeguarding (Chancery) who will have responsibility for parishes and clergy.

Our new Diocesan Director for Safeguarding, supported by our new Safeguarding Executive of the three Safeguarding Managers, will be informed by the appointment of a Safeguarding Strategic Advisory Panel which will bring national and international policy and best practice advice to our endeavour. They will also be accountable to a Safeguarding Review Panel which will provide independent evaluation of the redress we seek to provide those who have suffered abuse.

Please be assured of my prayer for God's blessings for each of you,

Very Rev Dr David Ranson
Diocesan Administrator
